WORLD WAR I 1914--1918.

WARS.

In World War I, there was one girl from the Nobleton district who went Overseas, Mary Agar. She spent three years in the Hospitals there. Two of the boys from this district were killed in action, Mathew Agar, and William Chamberlain. The boys who went Overseas from these parts were the following:Mathew Agar; Leonard Atkinson; Walter McCutcheon; Reuben Dobson; Albert Snider; Albert Hill; Lyle Stewart; Wesley Woods; Hugh Sheardown; William Chamberlain; Chris. Chamberlain; Loftus Jewitt; Fred Chapman; and Frank Chapman.

On the return of these boys, a celebration was held in Nobleton. During the day, a Field Day was held at Hills Farm with many in attendance. In the evening a banquet was held for Mary Agar and the returned boys and their parents in the Hall. Also in the evening, a concert was held in the old Skating Rink and watches were presented to the returned folks. Mr. Walter McCutcheon was spokesman for the boys.

"PTE. W. J. CHAMBERLAIN"

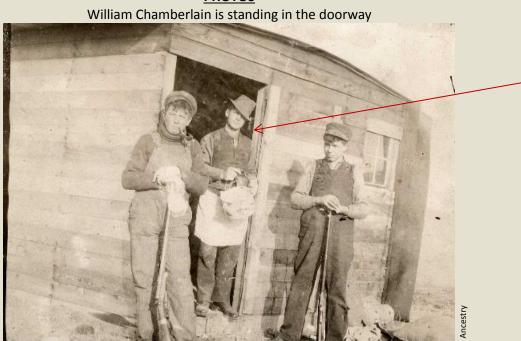

William J. Chamberlain was the second son of Wm. Chamberlain and Alice Robb of the 10th line, King township. When war broke out in 1914, Pte. Chamberlain had just finished the duties on his homestead at Sewell, Manitoba. In answer to the call for men, he abandonned his interests there, enlisted with the 46th Battalion and went overseas with the first Contingent of the Canadian Army.

He was killed in France June 17, 1917 while in the front line of duty. He was numarried, 24 years of age and had spent two birthdays in the trenches.

Women's Institute – Nobleton: Book 3 – Chamberlain Family

In 1885 he and Alice Ann Robb were united in matrimony. They raised seven children - namely Annie, Russel, William, Christopher, Stokes, Reuben and Hilda.

William J., the third child of Will and Alice, enlisted in the Canadian Armed Forces at the age of 21 in 1914. He served his country well until 1917 when he gave his life.
