TO KING CITY BOYS

Our glorious laddies

Are coming home,

For they brought peace

No more they shall roam.

They went away

To fight our fights

To save our country,

And to defend our rights.

Right well you are

Our soldiers true,

For you did your bit

For the red, white and blue

Many are lying

in Flanders field,

For when death came

They did willingly yield.

Father in heaven

Our thanks we give,

For our glorious heroes

Shall for evermore live.

Aurora War Memorial

The Aurora Banner

Aurora War Memorial

The names given below are those of the fallen men of Aurora, King and Whitechurch, as ascertained up to the present time by the War Memorial Committee.

Will every reader of the Banner in Aurora, King and Whitechurch, please look carefully over the list and draw attention to any error in initials or spelling of name, or omission of any name, communicating with the Editor of the Banner or with J. G. McDonald, Secretary of the War Memorial Association, without delay.

The Whitechurch list is an official list that has been checked over and pronounced correct; but it is included in above so that any typographical error, if any, may be noticed and corrected.

Although some of the names on these lists may and do appear on some local memorials, it will not be too much honour to these men that their names should also appear on this larger memorial— which from its location, its great size and architecture, will be visited by thousands of motorists and visitors aside from the people of Aurora, King and Whitechurch.
